

Bequest Intention and Recognition Form

I have made a provision for the National Women's Law Center in my estate plan to promote fairness and equality for future generations of women and their families.

My gift is stated as:

- A specific amount of $_____.
- A percentage gift of _____ %.
- Currently this may result in a gift of $_____

The National Women's Law Center is a beneficiary of my (please check all that apply):

- Will or living trust Life insurance policy Charitable trust
- Financial or investment account Retirement account Other _____
- I have named the National Women's Law Center as a secondary (contingent) beneficiary to receive a gift in the event of the prior death of a partner, family member, or friend.
- My partner has done the same. The National Women's Law Center will receive a gift upon the second of us to die.

Thank you for indicating your planned gift. We are honored to recognize your generosity in our annual report and other donor materials and as a member of The 1972 Society. Please print your name below as you would like it to be listed in such materials.

Name: _____ I prefer to be listed as Anonymous.
Address: _____
City: _____ State: _____ Zip: _____
Email: _____ Phone: _____
Signature: _____ Date: _____

This form is non-binding and does not constitute a legal promise of any future donation to the National Women's Law Center. We understand that bequests are revocable and that your estate plan may change. National Women's Law Center, 11 Dupont Circle, NW, # 800, Washington, DC, 20036, (202) 588-5180.